

Disaster Response Team

The Disaster Response Team provides the Presbytery with planning and coordination in preparation for and partnered response with Presbyterian Disaster Assistance and other agencies to natural or human-caused disasters within the bounds of our Presbytery as well as collective responses to such disasters outside of the Presbytery.

Membership is open to all and is not elected or term limited.

Opportunity for Service

The Disaster Response Team is an open team. All are invited to serve.